

08088: "writing the story of a vegetarian tiger and perhaps reflecting the peace of mind i felt leaving in the netherlands but then really interrupting the fable while going to italy and coming back to it feeling myself more precarious and affecting the tiger character"

04109: "a period feeling bad about not knowing where to hit for my project but then beginning to weld again in my dutch workshop and also feeling at the beginning frustrated with a new metal chopping machine unable to cut the metal but at last managing to get it to work and then going to italy and spending time working at my cathedral feeling happy and very happy to be with davide and then with august working there but always a bit tired and affected by a month of unusual bad mood from myrthe"

13158: "public places filmed to begin with during a walk in amsterdam and then both in culemborg and in utrecht with livia but also exploring the south of the netherlands biking to maastricht and exploring small villages and the countryside before reaching italy and staying in bassano at my aunt and in treviso before reaching the mounts"

15108: "a month breathing the bad air in the metal workshop until finally buying a professional machine making less dust and also inhaling the utrecht traffic and the traffic driving to italy to at last being in the open air of the mountains only breathing some gasses from my tractor and my trimmer and my chainsaw before going for a small holiday at the sea side breathing a fresh air"

17090: "clouds seen while in italy renting a place below my native highland and taking many walks and then back in stockholm observing the winter clouds there particularly on my way to august"

03104: "songs heard at my chileans neighbours playing guitar also with our naples friend and then singing songs all alone with livia before hitting the road with august and traveling all the way to paris listening to songs in the car and later driving to provence also hearing songs during a village festivity"

10110: "folk met during easter holiday in venice such as the daughter and boyfriend of my stepfather's cousin in murano and an old man working in the santa lucia church but also the priest coming to bless my house in the mountains and again in venice meeting a jewish couple and in the mountains a cool serbian coming to plaster the ceiling of my barn and finally back in venice the priest to whom my stepfather got so attached to"

01175: "month started in holland working on my welding project to then drive to italy and intensively work on the field of my cathedral taking only a break to go to the seaside or be with livia and august and loosing my camera up on the field running in the forest to protect myself from the rain and finding it again with the help of davide but getting quite some moisten pictures lastly driving a lot with my tractor to clear up the earth next to the barn"

16124: "a month spent in our cottage in the alps with an extreme drought hitting the north of europe for months leaving us a colder and more rainy weather and going one week to the my mother at the seaside to get more sun and finally back in santa caterina experiencing almost the same weather with a very clear sky in the morning and gigantic and stormy clouds in the afternoon often keeping in the higher mountains"

18120: "arriving in the alps and experiencing a very strong wind and then some calm days before going to the seaside and experiencing there no wind in the morning and an increasing wind in the afternoon finding quite calm days back in the mountains beside a day walking up a high mountain and experiencing a strong wind on the opposite side"

05123: "walking a bit in holland before driving to the italian alps and taking only small walks there such as walking in treviso with davide and then walking down to the village for the annual festivity and up to my field to work and later walking at the seaside while visiting my mother and taking only one major walk with august from pian delle fugazze all the way up to the carega mountain and back"

12148: "many attacks around the world but also calamities like in japan and most sadly in greece with a a fire killing almost hundred people in an island and reading the news now in the mountains finding it quite hard to connect to the internet"

04110: "a month feeling strong from all the digging work in the mountains despite all the criticism around me and myrthe getting quite tired in the contrada with livia not really sleeping at night and relaxing now also during a week spent at the seaside despite livia getting sick and a leakage problem in venice involving the neighbour below threatening all sort of legal actions"

03105: "listening to more radio and cds driving back with august from france and belgium then also singing song to livia taking her for her first train ride to amsterdam and even having myrthe to learn and sing the song for our baby and also listening to the music of a man working next to my welding station and listening to a dutch radio"

15109: "taking it easy with machines only teaching august how to use the chainsaw and breathing the nice mountain air also taking long walks with august till at last using the trimmer to clean the path all the way to my cathedral breathing quite some bad air as well as finding a lot of traffic driving back to holland through germany"

06084: "running now with livia in the stroller while in culemborg and managing the first time but the second getting her crying and having to rush back and then biking back and forth to my metal workshop also carrying having machineries trying to find the right one to cut metal bars"