

A large wall-mounted artwork consisting of a grid of 24 panels (6 rows by 4 columns). Each panel contains dense, horizontal lines of text, likely names or data points, arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and movement. The text is printed in a small, uniform font, and the overall effect is that of a vast, organized list or database.

